Indian capital in swiss banks, etc.

*319. SHRI ASHWANI KUMAR:
SHRI LAL K. ADVANI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the estimated amount of unaccounted Indian Capital deposited in the Swiss Banks and held in other foreign holdings abroad at present;

(b) the steps taken so far in this regard; and

(c) whether there has been any attempt to probe the matter and if so, the findings thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) to (c) Government has been aware of the clandestine deposits in foreign banks by unscrupulous elements, Banks accepting such deposits have their law of secrecy and do not disclose the details even if requested. Therefore, it is not possible to estimate the unaccounted Indian capital abroad.

The Enforcement Directorate of the Government of India is engaged in various operations to detect transfers of funds out of India in violation of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act. Raids and prosecution of persons violating FERA have been stepped up.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir.

(c) On some of the important issues involved the views of the States have been received and are being examined.

Rehabilitation of sick industrial units

†2524. SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a special meeting of the newly constituted Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction was convened in Bombay during the 2nd week of February, 1987 to chalk out rehabilitation packages for sick units of the country;

(b) if so, whether Government also propose to rehabilitate the sick industrial units by according the highest priority; and

(c) if so, what is reaction of the Central Government thereto and decision taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) to (c) Government and the RBI have been emphasising on banks and financial institutions for taking effective action for the rehabilitation of potentially viable sick units by preparation of suitable rehabilitation packages. Government have also set up a Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) in terms of the provisions of Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985. No formal meeting of the BIFR was held in Bombay in the second week of Feb., 1987. However, the Chairman of the Board held discussions with officers of the RBI, financial institutions and banks with regard to the modalities of operation of the sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985. The BIFR would be taking decisions in terms of this Act, on the merits of each case, after it becomes operational.
